A PROPOSED EDUCATIONAL FUND BY CONGRESS

A bill was introduced in the United States Senate on Tuesday, by Mr. Hoar, "to establish an educational fund, and to apply the proceeds of the public lands to the education of the people." It provides that the net proceeds of the public lands, and not proceeds of patents, either as principal or interest on any loans of money or credit, or bonds loaned to them, or issued for their use, or guaranteed for them by the United States, shall be set apart for the education of the people. At the close of each fiscal year the Secretary of the Interior shall ascertain the total receipts from the sale or other disposition of the public lands, and also ascertain in like manner the net proceeds of all receipts for patents after the expenses of the Patent Office are paid, it being his duty thereupon to certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount of said receipts, deducting such expenditures. Upon receipt of such certificate, the Secretary of the Treasury shall add thereto all amounts repaid to the United States within the year in cash by railroad corporations, as interest, and shall cause one-half of said aggregate to be invested in bonds of the United States, bearing interest at 4 per cent. per annum, which amount so invested shall constitute a perpetual fund in the Treasury, to be known as the national education fund.

A PRIZE.

"I will say but one thing in praise of my daughter," said a happy father, at that daughter's wedding breakfast. "She's a thorough and practical housekeeper." Could any complement have been higher? What an endorsement it was of the good sense and prospective comfort of her husband! For a man has much of the animal inheritance that he carries more for a good dinner than he does—so long as his appetite is unappeased—to listen to the music of the spheres. Heavy bread has made many heavy hearts, given rise to dyspepsia and its herd of accompanying torments. Girls who desire that their husbands should be amiable and kind should learn how to make light bread. A story is told of a happy wife who, when asked how she managed her husband so successfully, replied, with a radiant smile, "My dear, I feed him well." There is a great deal in that. Those wives who are entirely dependent upon housework make a sorry show at housekeeping. The stomach performs a very important part in the economy of humanity, and those who are forgetful of this fact commit a serious mistake. Even the lion may be tamed by keeping him well fed.

The coal miners' strike in Bradwood is at last at an end, the strikers having, on the 23d, accepted the terms offered by the companies. Those of the late strikers who are re-employed are to receive their back pay within twenty days, and those for whom there is no work immediately are to be paid their back wages within five days. At the miners' union meeting on the 23d, the first ballot on accepting the terms resulted in 200 votes against accepting, to 150 in favor of resuming work. Then the latter number arose in a body and avowed their intention and determination of going to work, regardless of consequences. This had the effect of bringing about a second ballot, which resulted unanimously in favor of accepting the proffered terms and resuming work at once. A car load of negro black log miners arrived at Bradwood, but they will, of course, be shipped home immediately, in view of the happy result of the proceedings.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second, how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health,) by using GILBERT'S ANGER POWDER. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day—Two doses of ANGER POWDER will relieve you at once. Sample bottles 20 cts. Regular size 75 cts. Positively sold only at first-class druggists in the U. S., and by A. J. Storer, B. F. Gue & Son and Theo. Hildebrandt.

How to Tell Genuine Florida Water.

The fine Florida Water always comes with a little pamphlet wrapped around each bottle, and in the paper of this pamphlet are the words, "Lanman & Kemp, New York, water marked, or stamped in plain inscribed letters. Hold a leaf up to the light, and if genuine, you will see the above words. Do not buy if the words are not there, because it is not the real article. The water mark letters may be very pale, but by looking closely against the light, you cannot fail to see them."

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has used BOSTON'S GENUINE SYRUP to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Those who will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the GENUINE SYRUP cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cts. For sale by A. J. Storer, B. F. Gue & Son and Theo. Hildebrandt.

THAT APPROPRIATION

The proposition to appropriate $534,712.18 for the completion of the new State house, was pretty well snowed under at the election. By the provisions of the act the proposition, in order to carry, must receive a majority of all the votes cast. The whole number of votes cast being 389,189, and the number of votes "For the appropriation" being only 80,212, it will be seen that Mr. Jacob Bunn and his associates were repudiated by a trifle over 300,000 majority, or to be exact, there were 308,977 voters who were unwilling to put any more of their money into the hands of the men who had already squandered three and a half millions of dollars on a pile of shoddy and imitation. Of these 308,977 voters who were not willing to go any farther in their hitherto futile attempts to satisfy the insatiable longings of the state house ring for money, 201,860 were so emphatic about it that they placed "Against the appropriation" upon their ballots, although the mere erasure of the word "For" would have answered just as well: all of which goes to show that the overwhelming rebuke administered to Mr. Bunn and his gang was not a mere accident, but that the sovereign people of the state of Illinois meant just what their ballots said.

Miss Dollie Logan, daughter of Gen. John A. Logan, is to be married this evening, to Mr. W. A. Tucker, at the residence of her parents, 81 Cabinet avenue, Chicago. A large party of Springfield people left yesterday to attend the wedding.

During the past year the following accidents to persons, took place on Illinois railroads.

Passengers killed	40
Injured	42
Employees killed	65
Injured	219
All other persons killed	132
Injured	103

The New York Evening Post's opinion of the Allegheny county grand jury is not flattering. It says: "A grand jury which in such a state of affairs will attempt to shift the bad presumption away from a mob must either expect that law-abiding and law-loving American citizens are fools, or else expect to be judged as public enemies scarcely better than the lawless men whose deeds they so weakly endeavor to screen."

Messrs Rowell & Hoofstetter are to open the war against whisky in Springfield, on the 1st of December. When Brother Jake attacks the strongholds of sin in that eminently sinful city he will find that he has a herculean task on his hands, but if there is a man living who can do ought that will affect the superlative wickedness of our state capital Brother Jake is that man.

According to the opinion of Dr. Theodore Christlieb, an eminent German divine, who came to this country as a representative of Germany to the Evangelical Alliance, this nation is in a bad way. He is reported as saying that the spirit of Christ is not with the American nation, and it must therefore go down. This is very bad news, and in hunting for the causes, upon which the Reverend Divine bases his prediction, one naturally turns to the dishonesty in public and private life, the spread of infidelity, the existence of intemperance, the social evil, or something of that kind, but these, bad as they are, are not the bad features that the Reverend Doctor saw, and it is not any one nor all these combined, that are to destroy the nation. The Doctor being asked to state the fearful wickedness, which was to bring the nation to such fearful destruction, replied that, "on one occasion he heard an American married woman say to her husband, 'Dear, will you bring me my shawl?' and he brought it. On another occasion he saw an American wife remonstrating with her husband, who was obliged to go and hunt his own slippers. Thus it has always been. Since the days of Eve, woman has been at the bottom of all the great troubles of the race. Wives, who don't want this universal Yankee nation swamped beyond all hopes of redemption should watch the coming of their husbands at the door ready to draw their boots and put on their slippers, for according to Dr. Christlieb, the spirit of Christ is not in the woman who won't do that very thing. We don't know whether Dr. Christlieb is a married man or not, but if he should marry the average American woman, he would soon get that crocheted out of his head, or go barefoot the balance of his days, in spite of his uncomfortable predictions of the nation's downfall."

THE MISSISSIPPI PLAN.

Indianapolis Journal.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette has been visiting Jackson, Mississippi, and in a letter speaks of a prominent and "influential" democrat of that state. Gen. J. Z. George was the chairman of the democratic state central committee of Mississippi in 1875. He is the "head bulldozer" of his state, and is credited with having invented the "Mississippi plan." The correspondent says: "Just now he expresses himself very anxious for Northern immigration, but I omitted to ask if he had any preference as to the immigrant's politics. 'The fact is, doctor,' said he, addressing me, 'we had to pull to redeem this state, but we did it. We've no objection to the nigger voting, none in the least—if he'll vote right,' and at this sally there was a general laugh. Growing more serious, the general gave me his reasons for thinking that universal suffrage would not do for many years to come." This exactly expresses the feeling of all the people in the South in regard to the Fifteenth amendment to the constitution. They will practically nullify it, unless the negroes do what is worse than refuse to vote—that is, allow the White Liners to control their ballots. Does this look much like the democratic party in the South was being broken up? The old fable about the traveler with the cloak and the elements does not apply to this situation. The benign influences of the sun of reconciliation fails to remove the cloak of rebellion and hatred from the shoulders of the South. Gen. George and his confederates may argue and reason that "universal suffrage will not do for many years to come" until they are blind, but the fact will still remain that universal suffrage is a part of the constitution which must be upheld in the spirit and in the letter before there can be any reconciliation. Until the South has no objections to the negro voting, "if he votes right" or if he votes wrong, there can be no reconciliation. The government is only winking at a violation of the constitution by yielding to their childish obstinacy, and endeavoring to buy them back into complete harmony with the Union and its laws. It is harp-stringing away a great principle, which has cost untold wealth and priceless lives, for a mere sentiment, and when the dream is over and the country stands face to face with these people in reality it will recognize its own folly.

A DEMOCRATIC PROPHECY.

The New York Staats-Zeitung is edited by a Democrat. For a time he was lukewarm, but that was when the knownascalaries of Tammany were upheld by his party. Of late he has been "truly loyal" to the organization. It is therefore peculiarly significant that this paper editorially predicts the speedy collapse of both political parties. He thinks finance the rock on which the parties will split, and go to pieces. After talking about the present session of Congress, that paper concludes thus:

In his annual message the President will have an opportunity to express himself more fully respecting his views and plans, and their exposition will no longer be confined to the caucus. The regular session will be rich in such expostulations, and the financial question will then stand forth as very dangerous to both parties. Hard money Democrats and hard money Republicans and soft money Democrats and soft money Republicans are the two parties which the paper and silver advocates exhibit in their work. It is hardly possible that both the parties should escape being shaken to pieces. With all the pertinacity which the old parties possess, their existence is, perhaps, exposed to greater danger in the immediate future than ever before. Their obstinate adherents are, indeed, not willing to admit this, and launch at every doubt, respecting their immortality. It would be the very old straw to dispute with them about it; it is certain that many of them may yet go through the experience of our adored President himself, and may contribute to the destruction of the old parties without wishing it or knowing it.

The editor of the Newport Homesite State, who was a soldier in the Eighteenth Indiana regiment during the war of the rebellion, is in favor of returning the flag asked for by Governor Hubbard on behalf of the Texas Rangers, and thinks President Hayes the proper person to carry it to "that distracted land," with becoming apologies for the rudeness of the Hoosiers who captured it. He thinks this would be carrying out the pacific policy to its legitimate conclusion.

SOLVING A PROBLEM.—It has long been a problem how mean a Republican had to be before he was mean enough to make a Democrat out of Conover and Patterson are trying to solve that problem with every prospect of success. —Chicago Democrat.

THE INFIRMITIES OF AGE

Are harder to bear than the ailments of middle life or youth, since the resistant power in the system has diminished with declining years, and disease and pain have more power over the enfeebled body. It is therefore more essential that that resistant power should be augmented. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a benign tonic cordial, is admirably adapted for the purpose. It counteracts the indigestible peculiar to age, and succors worn-out nature. It vivifies the feeble frame, adds new oil, as it were, to the flickering lamp of life, diffuses fresh warmth through the chilled veins, and gives comfort as well as relief, thus lightening the burden of age and retarding in a measure the progress of decay. Ladies in delicate health, as well as aged persons, derive great benefit from this wholesome stimulative tonic, which is absolutely pure, unobjectionable in flavor, and is recommended by physicians of repute. TELEGRAPHIC.
THE STRUGGLE

GREAT DEBATE IN THE SENATE YESTERDAY.

No Conclusion Reached

Speeches by Conover and Patterson.

SENTENCE OF SMALLS AND OTHER SOUTH CAROLINA REPUBLICANS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Mr. Wadleigh, of the committee on privileges and elections, submitted a report, accompanied by a resolution, declaring W. P. Kellogg entitled to a seat as senator from Louisiana for six years ending March 4, 1883. He asked the present consideration of the resolution, but objection was made by Messrs. Merrimon, Withers, and others, and the resolution was laid over until to-morrow.

Mr. Merrimon submitted a minority report, signed by Messrs. Till and Saulsbury, and himself, in favor of seating Mr. Spofford. Ordered printed. House bill, repealing the resumption act, was read by title, and referred to committee on finance.

The latter portion of the morning hour was devoted to discussing the resolution submitted by Mr. Chaffie, calling upon the President for information as to what impediments exist which prevent him from executing the laws against the Union Pacific road and its branches, but before reaching a vote, the morning hour expired, and consideration was resumed of the resolution to discharge the committee on elections from further consideration of the credentials of Mr. Butler.

Mr. Davis (Ill.) explained the reason why he favored the motion to discharge the committee.

Mr. Davis said it was important that the vacant seats from South Carolina and Louisiana be filled. The legislation of congress was binding upon the people of those states, and they have a right to expect that the claims for these seats should be acted upon at the earliest possible moment. Had the committee on elections reported in favor of seating Kellogg before the senator from Ohio (Mr. Thurman) submitted his resolution to discharge the committee from the Butler case, he would have voted to consider Kellogg's case first, but he thought that the resolution of Mr. Thurman, having been submitted first, was entitled to precedence.

Mr. Edmunds, after a brief reply, moved that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business, which motion was rejected by 28 yeas to 30 nays. Conover and Patterson voted with the Democrats in the negative.

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—A special from Matamoros, Mexico, of yesterday's date, says: "The troops which left the city of Mexico some days ago, under command of Gen. Trevino, for the Rio Grande, are not to repel the United States troops, but to co-operate with the United States authorities in maintaining peace between the two countries. In consequence of the presence of General Escobedo, with all his staff officers, on the Texas frontier, evidently with the intention to inaugurate a revolution in favor of ex-President Lerdo, about 700 regular troops have embarked at Vera Cruz for the mouth of the Rio Grande, to be used in repelling Escobedo should he attempt to cross into Mexico."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—A Portland dispatch says, that in the case of U. N. Stiles, on trial for perjury in connection with the Grover investigation, the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal, and were discharged.

A new trial is directed to be had in the case of W. B. Higby, indicted for subornation and perjury, in the same connection. It is set for the 27th inst. Important developments are anticipated.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 26.—Judge Townsend to-day rendered judgment adverse to the motion in arrest of judgment in the cases of Small and Cardozo, ex-treasurer of South Carolina, for conspiracy to defraud the State, two years imprisonment in jail and $4,000 fine, and one year's imprisonment added if the fine is not paid at the expiration of two years. Small, member of congress, for accepting $5,000 while member of the State senate, three years at hard labor in the State penitentiary. L. Cass Carpenter, formerly proprietor of the Columbia Daily Union, for forgery in raising amounts for publishing the laws in his paper, two years in jail and a fine of $1,000. Appeals will be made in all the cases.

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—J. M. Kinsley, Chief of Police of Peoria, and T. L. Gill Deputy Sheriff of Peoria county, arrived here to-day, and Sheriff Hitchcock, of Peoria county, and Sheriff Borgner, of Knox county will arrive to-morrow, to take Bando, the murderer, to Knox county.

The matter of dividing the reward offered for Bando has not been definitely settled, but it is believed it will be arranged that Bando may be taken from here to-morrow night.

The $6.00 Suit at B. Stine's—an immense bargain. [Nov 15 dt]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26.—The galleries of the senate were thronged with spectators from the hour of meeting at noon until the latest to-night. On the floor were also assembled a number of representatives and others entitled to its privileges, all deeply absorbed in the pending contest. Since the adjournment on Friday last there has been much caucusing among the senators of both parties, in which tactical maneuvers were clearly laid down. The democrats were determined not to yield any point which would deprive them of their vantage ground, and in all their parliamentary maneuvers to-day they operated on this basis. The only features of the day were statements made by Patterson and Conover in justification of their course. Both were listened to with interest. Amongst the republicans there was evidently a feeling of leniency towards Patterson. As was stated subsequently by a senator in conversation, the judicial authorities of South Carolina could not afford a noble prospect in his case, as it would instantly appear as if the allegations of bargain were well founded. Patterson made his statement in firm voice. Conover's allusion to Edmunds' course in the Pinchback case afforded much amusement to the democrats. There is no doubt of the sincerity of Patterson in his determination to stand by the republican party, except in the matter of Butler's admission. He stated to-night that he would move an amendment to Thurman's motion to discharge the committee on elections in the Butler case, by also inserting the name of Kellogg. This will force a vote on the Kellogg case, in conjunction with that of Butler, as the amendment will be likely to carry, Patterson voting for it; and Conover has also renewed his assurances of voting for Kellogg and intimates that on voting for the Patterson amendment he will not be failing in his duty to Butler. Edmunds' severe strictures upon Patterson have been condemned by the more intimate republican friends of the latter, as they are inclined to sympathize with his desperate predicament. Private advices received from South Carolina, state that when the legislature meets a resolution will be offered requesting Patterson to resign, or if he fails to respond his prosecution will be continued in hopes of displacing him in the senate, and the substitution of Wade Hampton.

A leading democratic senator, in speaking of statements that they are striving for the control of the organization of the senate, said to-night that he did not believe that he would take the organization on the votes of two such men as Patterson and Conover; that if they had a majority of their men they would assert that right, but he did not regard either as democrats, and to change the organization on such a basis would do them more injury than good before the people.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—A telegram from Sofia states that the Turks evacuated Orhanko on Saturday.

London, Nov. 26.—A special from Constantinople, says that the Sultan has expressed his intention to treat separately with the Czar. He abandons all idea of applying to any foreign power for mediation.

A special from St. Petersburg says that the Russian newspapers profess a desire for peace. There is much talk of direct negotiations with the Porte, and the probability of such settlement is said to grow stronger daily. Russia is reported to be making special exertions to secure at any rate, England's exclusion from these negotiations.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The signal service observer at the wreck of the Huron, reports at 1 10 p. m. "No more bodies have been recovered. The tide is running strong northward, and it is probable a number will come ashore further north. The sea is too high to get a boat to the wreck. The body of a colored man, from Baker's surf boat was washed up during the night."

NORFOLK, Nov. 26.—The survivors of the Huron have arrived here. Several seamen, who have been interviewed, make the following statement: The vessel was heading her course south-southeast—the wind blowing strong from south-southwest—under after sail to steady her, and steaming along—There was no event to excite apprehension of disaster. Master French had the night watch. She had sighted and passed Currituck lights, and orders were given to keep a bright look for Bady's Island light. At 1:40 the vessel struck, when all hands rushed on deck. Capt. Ryan and the officers acted promptly. The crew responded to all orders with alacrity. The surf was terrific. Shortly after the vessel struck a boat was lowered, but immediately swamped. The vessel clewed broadside to the sea, which made a clean break over her, sweeping everything from the decks and carrying boats from davits. Many seamen and officers were washed overboard.

The Daily Republican.

FAGOTS OF WISDOM.

In being angry we punish ourselves. Avarice is the chastisement of the rich.

The only way to make a friend is to be one.

Humility makes all other graces amiable.

Fortune and the sun make insects shine.

Conversation is the ventilation of the mind.

Those who raise envy will easily incur censure.

Health is the foundation upon which all happiness is built.

It is only the calm waters that reflect heaven in their breast.

Everything we add to our knowledge adds to our usefulness.

Let no one descend so low as to consider money to be the chief good.

Men are like words—when not properly placed, they lose their value.

Men are never so ridiculous by the qualities they possess as by those they affect to possess.

GIVE US YOUR NAMES.

We wish to obtain the name and address of every lady who purchases goods in Decatur, and for that purpose have opened a Business Register for their signatures, and as an inducement to those who will favor us with their names we shall offer five prizes, as follows:

1st prize—25 yards Best Black Silk, at $1.00 per yard.

2d prize—25 yards Best Ingrain Carpet, at $1.00 per yard.

3d prize—Best Cloth Coat, at $20.

4th prize—15 yards Best Black Cashmere, at $1.00 per yard.

5th prize—Best Corset and Kid Gloves we have.

The prizes will be put on exhibition during the month of September, the drawing to take place the first of January next.

The prizes will be distributed under the direction of such persons as will insure justice and satisfaction to all. Every lady who has her name on our register will have one chance.

June 30—dewitt Linn & Scowen.

GOLD! GOLD! GOLD!

(though hard to get and slippery to hold, is the one thing needed.) Say, friend, have you got it? If not, you will find comfort and consolation by taking the Old Reliable Hannibal & St. Joseph R. R. en route to the SAN JUAN MOUNTAINS of Colorado and New Mexico, or to the BLACK HILLS.

Rich discoveries have recently been made in the above mining regions, showing that the dust is THERE, and free to all for the taking. The undersigned is prepared to furnish transportation for LARGE OR SMALL parties through to Custer City or Deadwood, either via Omaha or Denver, at the lowest possible rates.

For the Black Hills buy tickets only to Cheyenne, and fit out for the mines from there. For San Juan, ticket to Pueblo or El Moro.

For further information apply to J. Beckwith, Agent, Quincy, Ill. Or to T. Pennington, G. P. & T. A., Hannibal, Mo.

Feb. 28, 1877—dewitt

The Great Popularity of the "Old Dominion" Buck Gloves and Gauntlets has induced parties, both in Decatur and surrounding towns, to sell inferior gloves under this name. None are genuine unless stamped "Geo. Old" on the inside, and to be had only of

Oct. 2—dewitt Linn & Scowen.

Have you been to the Farmers' Store, 37 North Church street, and looked over the stock of Groceries, Queens, Glass, Wood, Willow and Hard Wares that are to be exchanged for beef, pork, butter, lard, eggs, corn, oats, wood and greenbacks?

Oct. 10—dewitt Linn & Scowen.

TO ALL SALOON-KEEPERS.

Take Notice, and Govern Yourselves Accordingly.

We give you this notice to warn you against selling intoxicating liquors of any kind to all common drunkards.

2d. To any persons who have been and are now members of the Reform Club of Decatur, Ill., to all minors.

And for your information, what constitutes a common drunkard is for any person to be drunk three times in four years. That is the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States.

We give you this notice in all kindness, with malice toward none, and charity for all, and we hope we will have no cause for presenting you to the grand jury when it is convened; but we mean business, and for every violation on your part we will hold you responsible, and you will be prosecuted to the end of the law. By order of the Committee.
